Asserts Before Men's Club, at Mount Pleasant Church, that There Can Be No Absolute Justice by Finite Creatures-This Failure. He Declares, Is Sure Sign of Future Life.

"Absolute justice cannot be given by finite creatures. Hence there can be no such thing as absolute justice in this world," said Justice David J. Brewer, of the United States Supreme Court, in his address before the Men's Club, at the Mount Pleasant Congregational Church,

The Sunday school room was crowded with members and guests of the club, and they loudly applauded the speaker for his address. "Life from a judicial standpoint." "Men have different visions," said he in commencing his discourse. The agreement had been made with the management of the skating rink to share the evening's profits with the Masonic soldiers, who wished to raise funds to take them on a proposed season of competitive drill matches with other crack teams of the country, and the attendance was doubled thereby.

Make a Fine Showing.

When the drill teams were ready, the floor was cleared of skaters, and the spectators found seats or leaned against the rail that surrounds the rink floor. Capt. Frank Gibson, of the Arabs, led his men on the floor at double time. The teams made a fine showing in their brilliant Zouave uniforms, and were received with cheers. "Then the responsibility for the dereliction is not with those who framed the bill, but with Congress, which has not given an appropriation for a force to make the valuations," suggested Mr. Aldrich.

"That is so," replied Mr. Smith. Continuing, Mr. Smith said the government, by accepting railroad securities for currency purposes, might be put to the necessity of foreclosing upon the railroads and of operating the property, and thus the first step in the direction of government ownership would be taken.

WANTS A HEARING ON BILL

Will Write to Members of Flouse Committee Asking to Be Heard at Early Moment on Proposed Government Ownership of Telegraph Lines-Publication of Unfair List.

Representative Jesse Overstreet, of Indiana, came in for criticism and censure last night, at the weekly meeting of the Central Labor Union.

The committee appointed to seek a hearing in regard to government ownership of all telegraph lines, reported that Mr. Overstreet, the chairman of the House Committee on Post-offices and Post Roads, positively refused to grant a hearing at the present time, as he is going away for several days and would not have the bill come up for a hearing in his absence.

Want to Do Something.

The committee reported that Mr. Overstreet controlled this committee, body and soul, and declared it was time something was done to take this one-man power from the hands of those who used it as fancy suited.

A motion was offered by P. J. Ryan, of the Plate Printers' Union, and carried to have the executive committee of the Central Labor Union address a communication to all the members of the Committee on Post-offices and Post Roads. asking for a hearing at an early date. Garfield Hospital Scored,
